

MARK YOUR CALENDARS NOW
FOR A SUMMER EVENT
YOU DO NOT WANT TO MISS.

K-12
STEM
EDUCATION POLICY
CONFERENCE

JULY 12-13, 2011

AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY,
1155 16TH STREET, NW, WASHINGTON, DC 20036

WHAT'S AHEAD FOR STEM EDUCATION WITH ALL THE CHANGES IN CONGRESS?

IS STEM EDUCATION STILL A PRIORITY FOR THE
OBAMA ADMINISTRATION?

WILL NO CHILD LEFT BEHIND
BE REAUTHORIZED,
AND HOW WILL THIS
HAVE AN IMPACT ON STEM ED?

Join your colleagues for this 1 ½ day conference and learn more about the rapidly changing STEM education policy landscape from influential federal policymakers and national education leaders before heading to Capitol Hill for meetings with your elected representatives.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

STEM educators
Administrators
Researchers
Publishers and Instructional Material Providers
STEM professionals
Anyone interested in the future of STEM education

- Speakers from key federal agencies will discuss their top STEM initiatives and answer questions from participants.
- Congressional staff will discuss current STEM related legislation, NCLB, and America Competes, and what's ahead in the 112th Congress
- Washington insiders will discuss the political landscape and help participants get ready for Congressional visits
- Our collective voices will be heard as we join together for visits to Capitol Hill lawmakers.

THE K-12 STEM EDUCATION POLICY CONFERENCE IS BEING SPONSORED BY

For more information, contact Jodi Peterson at National Science Teachers Association, jpeterson@nsta.org